Museum of the American Revolution

What was life like in Philadelphia during the Revolutionary War? The Museum’s new discovery center, Revolution Place, brings to life the Museum’s lively, diverse Old City neighborhood during the 1700s and invites visitors to learn through hands-on exploration. Revolution Place features four key recreated historical environments – a military encampment, a tavern, a home, and an 18th-century meeting house – to immerse and engage your group. Visitors will enjoy experimental elements, interactive touchscreens, reproduction objects, and special programming set against colorful murals that evoke scenes from 18th-century Philadelphia. The Museum explores the dynamic story of the American Revolution using its expansive collection of Revolutionary-era weapons, personal items, documents, and works of art. Immersive galleries, dynamic theaters, and recreated historical environments bring to life the events, people, and ideals of our nation’s founding. This Museum engages people in the history and continuing relevance of the American Revolution. Enjoy an included lunch at the Hard Rock Café before heading back home.

The Power of a Nation the 9/11 Memorial

The 9/11 Memorial is located on the grounds of the World Trade Center and honors the 2,983 people that were killed in the attacks on September 11, 2001. The Memorial consists of two reflecting pools set in the footprints of the Twin Towers and a plaza of trees, including the Survivor Tree, which was damaged in the attack but was nursed back to health. After your self-guided tour you will take a short walk to One World Observation. You will ride in the Sky-pod to the 102nd floor and watch the virtual city skyline transform across centuries of history. Learn about the construction of the 1,776-foot-tall skyscraper, which has sweeping views that stretch up to 50 miles across the city. On the ride up, impressive time-lapse technology, show cases the city's transformation from the 1500's to the present in immersive floor-to-ceiling screens. At the top, spectacular 360-degree views of New York City's waterways, iconic skyline, and renowned landmarks stretch for miles. NOTE* Entry to the 911 Museum is not included.

44 passengers + 2 Free.....from $78.00 per person
 38 passengers + 2 Free .....from $82.00 per person

Fascinating Facts: The two reflecting pools are the center piece of the 9/11 Memorial's design, a work titled "Reflecting Absence" by Michael Arad. The pools cover the exact footprints of the original Twin Towers. Each is about an acre in size and together they make the largest man-made waterfall in North America. The falls blast about 26,000 gallons of water a minute over the 30-foot, black granite walls.
